

Aq-1210e Optical Time Domain Reflectometer Telecom Agent

Overview

The AQ1210 Series delivers high performance in a compact, field-ready design. Built for harsh environments, it enables fast, accurate measurements with confidence. Dual operation via touchscreen and hard keys ensures intuitive use, while automated measurements and clear reports. More details for AQ1210E can be seen below. Engineered with innovative. The AQ1210 OTDR is a compact instrument that is well suited for handheld use in the field, and it can be used not only as an OTDR but also as a power meter or light source. Development Background. Yokogawa, as a 100+ year instrumentation manufacturer, delivers OTDRs (Optical Time Domain Reflectometer) based on our measuring technologies developed since the early days of optical fiber communication and 38+ years of experience in optical test & measurement solutions for real world lab and.
