

Bhutan Cable Tray Factory Direct Procurement

AI Overview

Cable tray procurement in Bhutan is primarily managed through the Royal Government's e-GP system, with tenders accessible via official and aggregator platforms.

Official Procurement Platforms The Electronic Government Procurement (e-GP) System is the central portal for all government procurement in Bhutan, managed by the Ministry of Finance. It allows suppliers to access tenders, corrigenda, and contract award notifications across various procuring agencies. For cable tray procurement, suppliers should regularly check the e-GP portal for relevant tenders and download the tender documents directly.

Tender Aggregator Platforms Several aggregator websites provide consolidated access to Bhutanese tenders:

- GlobalTenders: Aggregates tenders from official websites, newspapers, and journals, making them searchable by category, deadline, and location.
- TendersOnTime: Offers advanced search options, tender alerts, and local agent support for submission and registration.
- BidDetail: Provides live government and private tenders, including detailed bid documents, deadlines, and contract awards across sectors like construction and infrastructure.

How to Participate

Register on the e-GP portal or aggregator sites to access tender documents.

Check eligibility: Ensure your company meets the technical, financial, and legal requirements specified in the tender.

Prepare bid documents: Include technical specifications, pricing, and compliance with Bhutanese procurement rules.

Submit bids on time: Most tenders require online submission through the e-GP system or via authorized local agents.

Follow updates: Monitor corrigenda and notifications of contract awards to stay informed about tender status.

Support Services Local agents and bidding consultants can assist with:

- Tender registration and document purchase
- Submission...
