

Laos electrical distribution box manufacturer

AI Overview

Laos has several manufacturers and suppliers of electrical boxes and distribution boxes, including local custom enclosure providers and international companies like Schneider Electric.

Local Manufacturers and Suppliers

1. Sheet Metal Factory - Laos Electrical Enclosure Manufacturers This company specializes in custom electrical enclosures, cabinets, and boxes with over 22 years of experience. They offer design, customization, and one-stop processing solutions for electrical enclosures, catering to both industrial and commercial needs.
2. Vientiane Automation and Solution Engineering Co., Ltd. (VASE) VASE is a national leader in electrical, instrumentation, and control systems. They provide design, supply, and commissioning of electrical systems, including distribution boxes and control panels, with a focus on high-quality engineering and customer service.
3. Go4WorldBusiness Suppliers Several suppliers listed on Go4WorldBusiness offer smart distribution boxes, cable earthing connection boxes (Link Boxes), and control pane boxes. These products are often customizable to IP66/IP67 standards and made from stainless steel enclosures, suitable for high-voltage and industrial applications.

International Companies Operating in Laos

1. Schneider Electric Laos Schneider Electric provides a wide range of electrical distribution solutions, including residential and industrial distribution boxes, smart panels, and energy management systems. They offer technical support and solutions tailored to modern building and industrial requirements.
2. DAI-ICHI DENSHI LAO Co., Ltd. Part of a multinational group with operations in Laos, DDL specializes in electrical components and wire harnesses, which are essential for assembling distribution systems and electrical panels.
