

OPPC fiber optic connector price

AI Overview

OPPC fiber optic connectors typically range from a few dollars per unit to over $50 depending on type, quantity, and supplier. Pricing Overview Alibaba offers OPPC fiber optic connectors and splice joint closures, with prices varying based on customization, quantity, and specifications. Single units may cost more, while bulk orders reduce the per-unit price. Mouser Electronics lists fiber optic connectors with pricing that depends on the connector type, quantity, and shipping location. Prices can start from a few dollars per connector and increase for specialized or high-performance models. DigiKey provides a wide selection of fiber optic connector assemblies, with real-time pricing and availability. Prices vary by connector type, core count, and assembly configuration, typically ranging from $5 to $50 or more per unit.

Factors Affecting Price

Connector Type: SC, LC, ST, or custom OPPC connectors influence cost.

Quantity: Bulk purchases significantly reduce per-unit pricing.

Material and Specifications: Connectors with ceramic ferrules, high-temperature resistance, or specialized coatings are more expensive.

Supplier and Shipping: International shipping, tariffs, and supplier location can affect the final price.

Recommendations

For small-scale purchases, Mouser or DigiKey provide ready-to-ship connectors with transparent pricing. For large-scale or customized orders, Alibaba suppliers offer bulk pricing and customization options, which can lower costs per unit. Always verify compatibility with your OPPC fiber type (e.g., G652D, core count) to ensure optimal performance. By considering these factors, you can select OPPC fiber optic connectors that balance cost, quality, and network requirements.
